

Butterfly Lion workshop review by Kiara

We used acting and dancing to perform the story. The workshop was really fun because it was different to our usual lessons.

Using technology to support our English learning? Written by Massimo

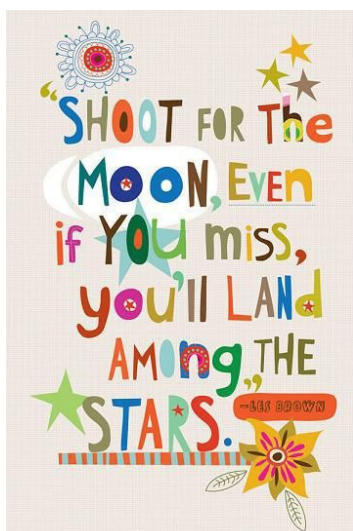

We watched a video of a dragon landing at our school. It helped me create a great description of the dragon.

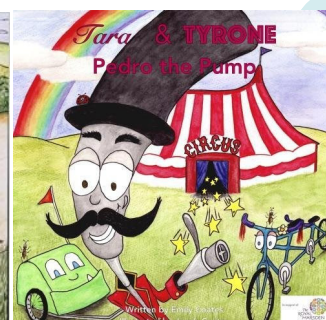

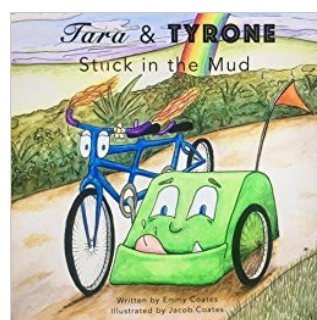

World Book Day review by Larna and Aidan D

World Book Day was fun because we got to dress up. We did lots of fun activities. For example, we listened to famous songs and answered questions about the songs.

A maths update by Nusta

We have been learning about different units of measurement. My favourite activity was measuring schools items using scales. Also, I enjoyed the capacity activities.

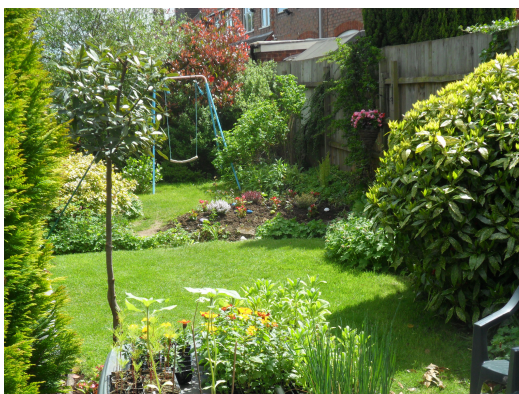

A French club review by Rachel-Lee and Nikita

We really enjoy French club. We are making houses out of junk materials, so we can learn vocabulary in French to describe houses. Have a look at the photo above. We will show more pictures when our houses are finished.

Where do you like to read? by Miss Moses

I like to read in my garden. I find it a relaxing and calming place. Where do you like to read? Take a photo of your chosen location, and in a few words explain why you like reading in it. Bring photos and explanations into school. We would like to display them in the book corners.

Did you know?

Rachel Ashley Platten is an American singer and songwriter. She released three independent albums between 2003 and 2014, before signing with Columbia Records in early 2015.

She rose to fame in 2015 with the release of the single "Fight Song," which peaked at number six on the US Billboard Hot 100, topped the charts in the United Kingdom and peaked within the top ten of multiple charts worldwide. Platten won an Emmy Award for the live performance of the song on Good Morning America.

Her major-label debut album, Wildfire, released in 2016, was certified gold by the Recording Industry Association of America and also featured "Stand by You" and "Better Place."

We would like to continue sharing a famous figure each month. If you would like to submit an entry, write it out and give it to Miss Moses.

Have a lovely weekend! Miss Boughton, Mrs Wheeler, Miss Moses, Mrs O'Shea and Miss Buckle.
